if you want to participate in a non-judged show remember our Quiltopia event in the fall and make a hanging for our Chartreuse Chameleon Challenge Show (September) or just hang a quilt to show or sell at our show at the Mill (early October).

The time is finally near for our POND PARTY; where we get together to show off the finished quilts from last year's Frog Prince, block-of-the-month. It's listed on the front page, and held at a West Salem Church, so we will have room to show and share and vote for our favorite. More fun and prizes, of course. Hope the date works for you.

Just in case you wanted to know who won of the 108th Anniversary $108 gift certificate… it wasn't you, it was Roberta Lippert!

We're so excited; we've designed a fold up over the shoulder tote bag that should be here by the time you read this. It sports a little quilt block on its pouch and then a bigger one when it's opened for use. Great for quilter gifts and yourself too. Going green should be fun!

We'd really love to see you in the Forest, but remember we have free shipping on most items if you can't make it in. Keep on quilting…. Sylvia Overnight in Bend with stops at a couple of quilt shops. This bus leaves at 9 am Friday, July 11 and returns to our shop at 5 pm July 12.

(Two to a room— includes dinner-- assigned bus seating)

Dont' Forget... The parking is hassle FREE at the Chemeketa Parkade — the entrance is just north of our shop on Commercial Street. You can drive through the alley and stop briefly to unload your machine from the back before parking, unless you have one of our rolling totes, then you'll want to roll it great distances! There is an elevator on Commercial St. so park near it on the 2nd or 3rd level!
